

“The values that we have built up over the course of decades, such as reliability, innovation and responsibility towards our customers, employees and business partners, will continue to be at the heart of everything we do in future. We will keep on improving our mobility solutions so that we continue to make people’s lives and work safer, easier and more efficient.”

Dr. Sarah Blickle-Fenner, David Blickle